

School Readiness is Everybody's Business.

If your company

- Employs 50 or fewer employees;
- Puts a premium on the wellbeing of your employees' families;
- Is committed to growing a highly skilled future workforce

We invite you to join Fairfax Futures' School Readiness Network as a Business Associate.

Stand with leading area companies who are committed to helping children start school ready to succeed and become the competitive workforce of the future.

Business Associate members will be recognized on Fairfax Futures' web site and in its newsletters, and will be invited to the annual leadership forum attended by elected officials and key business and nonprofit organizations.

- Yes, my business will help ensure that Fairfax County's youngest children start school ready to succeed. Enclosed is our tax-deductible contribution of $500 in support of Fairfax Futures' School Readiness Network.
- I am interested in learning more about how our business can become an advocate on behalf of young children's school readiness in Fairfax County.
